Advertiser.

School Election.

At the School Election Tuesday Carl Stonebraker and Joe McCulloch were re-elected directors for three years. The levy of 5 mills for maintenance of a nine months term was carried.
The Result:

	North	South	Total
J. R. McCulloch	250	262	521
L. C. Stonebraker	256	263	521
For County Superintendent—
Allison	309	300	409
Hoover	82	96	180
Majority			229

At a meeting of the school board Tuesday night the vote was canvassed and J. R. McCol-loch and L. C. Stonebraker declared elected directors for a term of three years.

The board was re-organized with J. J. Heck President, and R. E. Hoover Vice President.

The Treasurers' report showed that the nine months term would be maintained with money left on hands.

Committees were appointed for commencement exercises and the ministers chosen to deliver the Baccalaureate and class addresses.

In the election the impression seemed to be out that the two candidates were running against each other and at the final count they were tied. Carl and Joe are now wondering who is the best man.

C. C. & Co. Abandon Field.

We are informed that the Central Coal & Coke Company, will finish their work at Panama this week and will abandon the Panama field. Their mine No. 23 has been worked out and no other shaft will be sunk here. Up to a short time ago this company employed about 200 men at Panama. The men are now engaged in taking the iron out of the mine and the shaft will be closed this week.

W. H. Rapps, first baseman on the Oklahoma City team in the Texas League orders the Tribune sent to his address. Mr.
Rapps and his wife are keeping house in Oklahoma City during the base ball season but are still keeping their home in this city.

Wagonload after wagonload of tile is being taken out of this city by farmers who are draining their land. The brick and tile business promises to become a large industry here. The plant already here is being enlarged and will start in a few days.

The Leader-Electric Theatre has put in its own power plant run by a big gas engine. The plant is in a small building erected in the rear of the theatre.
The Leader-Electric is modernly equipped and puts on good shows.

D. B. Hickey, who has been in Chanute, Kans., a gas city, states to a Tribune reporter that he was surprised at the strong pressure maintained here, and that he did not suppose we had near the amount of gas we have Rich Hill people should encourage her Gas Co.

Marshal Benefield gathered up four tramps Monday, who had been hanging around the railroad yards and fastened a "23 sign" on them.

"The Lecture of Dr. Koepsel was interesting and inspiring. It deserves the highest commendation."
—Gazette, Independence
Kans.

T. Foohey, Milton Sturdevant, Louis Holett and Albert Westhoff were introduced to the Elks goat last night.

Wedding Bells.

Tuesday evening, April 6th 1909, at 7 o'clock, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Dubach, Mr. Frank Gray and Miss Irene P. Loudermilk, both of Galveston, Ind., were united in the happy bonds of wedlock. The bride and groom were attended by Mr.
Cleve Pitchford and Miss Julia Dubach, and the ceremony performed by Rev. Koepfili of that vicinity, in the presence of the bride's mother and a few intimate friends.

After congratulations, the guests were invited to the dining room where a feast of the best of viands and fruits was invitingly spread in Mrs. Dubach's splendid taste and the execution done by the company testified their appreciation of the culinary ability of the hostess.

Miss Julia Dubach rendered excellent music throughout the evening.

Miss Loudermilk will be remembered by some of our people she having lived here when a child. (Her mother taught school in this vicinity as Miss Irene Neal.) Of late years they have made their home in Indiana where she met and was won by Mr. Gray.

She came with her mother some weeks ago to pay a visit to her childhood friend Miss Dubach, but it seems that Mr.
Gray, who is an influential business man of Galveston, did not take kindly to the idea of "so many miles between," so he also came to Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray will take a wedding journey before returning to their home, going from here to St. Louis and then on an extended river trip.

The hearty congratulations and best wishes of their Missouri friends will follow this happy couple.

County Superintendent.

The indications are that P. M.
Allison, Democrat, was elected County School Superintendent by a majority of 150 although the returns are very slow coming in. Prof. Hoover carried the northern part of the county strong and Rich Hill and Butler gave Allison a majority of 350.
Allison's districts probably give him a majority of 425, and it is doubtful if Hoover's districts will pull this majority down less than 150.

Geo. Templeton, Jr., left Tuesday for Wayne, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, where he has accepted a position on a farm that makes a specialty of exporting horses.
The managers sent to the University of Missouri for a man and Geo. secured the position.
Rich Hill boys make good.

Harry Marsh is confined to his home on account of sickness.
